2. Reasons for these dividends

Recognizing returning earnings to shareholders as a key management goal, the Company has set a basic dividend policy that calls for returning earnings reflecting business results while maintaining stable dividends. It also calls for deciding on dividend amounts targeting a consolidated payout ratio of 30%, based on this basic policy of returning earnings to shareholders in accordance with business results while maintaining stable dividends.

Based on this policy, since the net profit for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2024 exceeded forecast and to practice management with an awareness of capital costs, aiming to achieve a high ROE that surpasses the capital cost and to enhance sustainable corporate value, the Company has decided to pay a year-end dividend of 32.5 yen per share, that was increased from the most recent projection of 27.5 yen by 5 yen. This will result in annual dividends of 60.0 yen (from an interim dividend of 27.5 yen and a year-end dividend of 32.5 yen) and a payout ratio of 31.7%. The Company Articles of Incorporation state that Company dividends of surplus may be paid based on the resolution of the Board of Directors.
